VOL. XXVI. No. 88

BOSTON, MASS., MONDAY, MAY 18, 1907

CREATED BY STUDENTS.

Advisory Council Brought into Existence in 1897 by Vote of Student Body.

The first movement for an advisory council on athletics was brought about by the loose methods that were alleged to have been employed in the years up to 1896, THE TECH and various other influential factors, as well as professors and alumni, urging that there be such a body.

On March 12, 1897, came the first definite step. At a meeting of the M. I. T. A. A. that day it was voted by the students that such a board ought to have charge of athletics. Another mass meeting was held on March 15, at which Prof. Dewey offered the following resolutions, which were accepted:

"RESOLVED—That a committee of five be appointed to consider the needs of the Institute in regard to physical training; of which there shall be two from the undergraduate body, two from the alumni association appointed by the executive committee of that body, and that the Corporation be invited to send a representative.

"RESOLVED—That this committee be authorized, if after inquiry it appears best, to frame a permanent plan of organization and procedure which shall be submitted to such body or bodies as it seems to them best."

The report, presented to the students at a meeting Oct 17, 1897, $1500 FOR ATHLETICS.

The success of "William, Willie and Bill" was emphasized in many ways at the Tech Show dinner at the Union Friday evening. The members of the faculty present voted it the best show they had witnessed here or among the various Harvard productions, and even Mr. Francis went so far as to strongly compliment the authors and composers. Financially the show will equal, if not surpass, the "Chemical Maid" in profits, as at least $1500 will be cleared, the business manager stated.

Instead of confining the entertainment to speechmaking and singing, Macomber, '07, who acted as toast master, hit upon the happy scheme of having many of the principals appear in costume, several of them being taken from former shows. Thus the speeches were interspersed with stunts, and those present were afforded the pleasure of gazing upon the fair countenances of such celebrated beauties as Mrs. Swelter, Maisy, and the Lady of Philadelphia, (Kibbey '07), of the "Chemical Maid."

Speeches were made by Mr. J. P. Munroe, of the Corporation; Dean Burton; Bursar Rand; Prof. Jackson, Prof. Clifford, Mr. McCready, Mr. Blackstein, Mr. Seaver, Prof. Richards, Mr. McMillin, in "How It Happened, or The Wellesley Deal," and Mr. Francis.

Those in costume were: Vonne-gut as German Innkeeper; Allen as the Grind; Kibbey, Lady of Philadelphia; Sando, as Maisy; Ellis, as Steve; Adams, as Jack Straw; Coffin, as Mignon; Childs, as William; Belden as Mrs. Swelter; Jenkins, as Pat Luscomb;

MAYHEW WINS MEET FOR BROWN.

Providence Team Defeats Institute Men in a Rather One-Sided Meet, 68 2-3 to 57 1-3. Two Records Go in the Two Mile.

It was too much Mayhew for Tech Saturday in the dual meet with Brown, for the old inter-scholastic star secured four firsts, and tied for second place in the high jump, his total of points being 21 1-3. The meet went to Brown by the score of, 68 2-3 to 57 1-3 points.

Gallup, of Brown, was another star performer, for he went the two-mile in 10 min. 1 1-5 sec., cutting 2 2-5 sec. off the New England intercollegiate record made in 1898 by Bean, of Brown. Udale, who finished second in this event after a heady race, broke the Tech record made last Saturday by MacGregor by 13 3-5 sec., Udale's time being 10 min. 5 sec. The only other remarkable time was that of Mayhew in the high hurdles, which he ran in 16 2-5 seconds, equalling the Tech record.

In spite of the splendid work of these few Brown stars, Tech could have won the meet by a good margin had some of the Institute men stood up at all well in their events. The work of the weight men was especially discouraging.

The first two places went to Brown in the mile. Lundell of Brown took the lead from the start and was never headed by the Tech men. In the third lap Chapman attempted to jump the Brown man, but Wells of Brown closed up with his team mate and came through easily. Wells and Lundell were first and second, a few feet apart, with Buckingham a good third. The time, 4 min. 45 sec. was good considering the condition of the track.

Prout of Brown, and Blackburn of Tech, ran a neck and neck race in the quarter. From the start to within 20 yards of the finish the two men seemed to be tied together. Then Blackburn, in a burst of speed, pulled away for first by a good margin. Wertheim, who held third nearly to the end, was jumped by Honiss at the finish.

Johnny Mayhew, the old inter-scholastic star, came to the front in the 100-yard dash, beating out Tech's crack trio after a hard race. Gram had a slight advantage for nearly the whole distance but it was Mayhew's jump at the end that gave it to Brown. Gould came in for a close third. The time was 10 2-5 sec.

Mayhew added another victory to his string in the high hurdles, winning easily in 16 2-5 sec. There were only two other men in the event, both Tech men, Eaton and Albro; the former secured the second place.

Gimson walked off with the half-mile, coming in over 200 yards ahead of Wells of Brown, Captain Thurlow making a poor third. The two Brown men led for more than three-quarters of the distance but Gimson came past in the last 200 yards. The time was 2 min. 4 2-3 sec.

Gallup of Brown broke the New England intercollegiate record in the two mile after a short skirmish with Udale of Tech. Gallup's time was 10 min. 1 1-5 sec., 2 2-5 sec. faster than time set by Bean, Brown, which was made in 1898.

Gallup ran a wonderful race and was headed only once by Udale, who came in for a good second.

Mayhew added another five points to Brown's score in the low hurdles, by a good ten feet. He outthurdled and outran the Tech men in the event, Fernstrom and Eaton coming in for a poor second and third. The ease with which the Brown man won is shown by the slow time.

It looked all Tech at first in the 220-yard dash. Gram, Gould, and Wertheim went through to the last 20 yards the leaders, but Honiss, Brown's crack sprinter, caught Wertheim near the tape and beat him out by a close margin.

Allen did not come up to expectations and his team mate Rapelye carried off first at the low height, 5 ft. 6 in. Allen, Tech; Sturdy and Mayhew of Brown tied at 5 ft. 4 in.

The expected happened in the shot-put, Brown securing the first two places easily, Tech getting a poor third. In the hammer, Scharff was away below form and was beaten by Hazard of Brown. The Providence college secured the third also.

There was more Mayhew in the broad jump but Eaton nearly took the honors away from the Brown star. Dickerman came in for a third.

As was expected, Orr won the pole vault. The best that Tetlow could do was to tie Huxford of Brown at 9 ft. 6 in.

"If Brown didn't have Johnny Mayhew" was an expression heard so often Saturday during and after the track meet with Brown that Tech's poor work. it emphasizes the fact that the average Tech man is enshrouded and blinded by a belief -- which amounts almost to a tradition -- that Tech men are never to blame for a defeat. In fact, in spite of Johnny Mayhew and his truly remarkable work, Tech could have won the meet had the performances of some of the Institute athletes been up to the standard shown in other meets and in practice. THE TECH could make this point more evident by actual instances but refrains from doing so out of respect for the men. It may be that THE TECH is unfair in its criticism that some men did not do their best, for there is always a possibility of a team being over- or under-trained, but the impression prevails that in a good many instances there was a lack of life and the spirit of fight back of the failure to win.

It certainly seems that the two teams were more evenly matched, even with Mayhew on the Brown team, than the score indicates. Those victories which Tech did get were so clean-cut and so evidently earned that they are instances of what might have happened had the other men done their work with the same earnestness. THE TECH firmly believes that this year's track team is the strongest that has represented the Institute in recent years, but that this strength was not displayed last Saturday.

Technology's shortage of a few hundred dollars in athletics makes a pathetic comparison with recent surpluses at Harvard, Yale, and other New England colleges. It is surely desirable both to have some form of sports at the Institute and to have an assured income for their maintenance. The rub comes in finding a faithful and steady source of contributions. The very wondrous feature of Tech's athletics is the fact of existence—existence in an atmosphere of excessive application to studies. And so it seems a pity that Tech, after surmounting its greatest hindrances to athletics, should be handicapped continually by a lean purse. Some patriotic individual should come forward and help the Institute men out of their undeserved predicament.—OLD GRAD.

went into physical training in general, discussing what form of athletics was best adapted to the Institute life.

In regard to control of athletics, the report says:

"In relation to athletics, the committee learns that the present conduct of them by the students is in general good. We have therefore considered the question of an advisory board or committee on different branches of athletics in the Institute, and other matters connected with the same. We have communicated with every large college in the east and find that it is the general custom to have a general treasurer, who is an alumnus. . . . At the colleges where he receives compensation he usually acts as general secretary on athletics."

The purpose and name of the organization was given in the constitution which had been drawn up by the committee. The constitution reads:

"The purpose of this organization shall be to regulate the general athletic interests of the students at the M. I. T., to exercise supervision over the management and to assume control at any time it is deemed necessary of all funds or income from funds in any way connected with athletics, and have final jurisdiction in all matters pertaining thereunto. . . .

"This Council shall consist of three past students of the M. I. T. and three undergraduates and a General Treasurer ex-officio, who shall be a past student and a resident of Boston. The three members on the part of past students shall be elected by the alumni association at its annual meeting. The three undergraduates shall be elected by the first meeting in October of their respective bodies, as follows: one by the athletic association, one by the football association, and one by the Institute committee."

Since the football was abolished the athletic association has elected two members. The general treasurer was to be elected by the members of the board. The power of the student body over the advisory council is shown by the clause:

"This Constitution may be amended by two third's vote of the entire council, provided notice of amendments is given each member at least ten days previous to any meeting, and provided the amendment be ratified by the athletic association."

A mass meeting of students on Oct. 19 of the same year voted to be prepared to accept the report of the committee at the next meeting and take up for consideration the advisability of such a board.

After preliminary notice of the purpose, a mass meeting of students was called on Nov. 4 to take action on the committee's report, and sanction the formation of the council. The meeting was opened by the president of the senior class. President Crafts, and Major Briggs spoke.

The following motions were adopted:

"WHEREAS — for some years there has been a growing sentiment among the students of the M. I. T. that a graduate body of advisors be appointed to supervise athletics at the Institute, and

"WHEREAS — the constitution for an advisory council on general athletics, which has just been read has been recommended by a special committee on athletics, and is admirably fitted to the long felt want;

RESOLVED — That we, the students of the M. I. T., express our approval of this constitution, and be it

RESOLVED — That we, the students of the M. I. T., request the alumni association, the athletic associations, and the Institute committee, to take up as soon as possible the steps to the establishment of said advisory council."

The various bodies mentioned as requested by the students elected members and the council held its first meeting in March of 1898, F. H. Briggs being elected president.

According to reports from San Francisco, which are probably authoritative, Merrick Eugene Vinton, Jr., was shot and killed by Walter C. Davis, who had lost his mind. Mr. Vinton was a member of the class of 1905 at the Institute. Until recently he was in the employ of The Atlantic, Gulf and Pacific Company, but a short while ago he accepted a position as surveyor on the work of surveying San Pueblo Harbor. The death of Mr. Vinton will be severely felt by his many friends.

PARK THEATRE.

The San Carlo Opera Company, which has created so profound an impression here by reason of its splendid performances of grand opera at the Park Theatre, has completed arrangements to defer the sailing from Boston so as to give more performances here, as follows: "La Boheme," "Faust," "Il Trovatore," "Rigoletto," "La
Traviata," and "The Barber of Seville."
